

Maryhill Community Central Hall Access Info

How to get there:

Maryhill Community Central Hall is on a fairly busy road. There is a blister paved beeping crossing to cross the road very near to the hall entrance. The pavements have drop curbs in the nearby area.

Bus: The nearest bus stops are Seamore Street, on the same side of the street as the venue, and North Woodside Road, on the opposite side of the street to the venue. The buses that stop here are 17, 60, 60A, 61.

Subway: The nearest subway station is Kelvinbridge which has an accessible entrance and exit. The journey from this subway is estimated at approx 20 minutes at a leisurely pace.

Taxi: There is some available roadside parking to be dropped off or picked up across the road from the hall by the Tesco Express.

Drive: There is some available roadside parking across the road from the hall by the Tesco Express.

Building Main Entrance:

The entrance to the building has a permanent ramp, the floor is smooth and even. There are 4 steps up to the main entrance with a bannister. There is an automatic main entrance door.

Grovepark Hall:

Grovepark Hall is located on the first floor. To get to the hall you will need to go to the first floor which can be reached by the stairs on the left or the lift straight ahead. The lighting in the hall is LED strip lights. There is seating available.

The Lift:

The lift is straight ahead from the main entrance. It is small and can fit one wheelchair and one standing person or three standing people. The lift has a very bright fluorescent strip light in it which could be triggering for those who are affected by migraines or bright light sensitivity.

The Stairs:

There is one set of steps up to the first floor. There are 33 steps. The stairs are wide and they have a bannister on one side.

Accessible Toilet:

The accessible toilet is on the first floor and can be accessed via the lift or the stairs from the main entrance (see previous info). It is right outside the Reid Hall. The door is heavy and not automated so please let us know in advance if you might require assistance with this.
